

I believe that monopolization of media sources will erase what little truth we can still find in the news. Please leave the rules regarding diversification of media ownership in place.